The Art of Zentangle

Zentangle is drawing with simple patterns that are combined in unique ways to form beautiful images while engaging the mind and relaxing the body! No art experience required! Participants will be provided with all materials needed and additional materials may be purchased to take home for those interested. This free workshop will be led by Kelley Kelly, Certified Zentangle Teacher. She is a graduate of Smith College with a degree in music and who has studied Fine Art Photography in graduate school. Registration required for this free adult program.

Lunch & Learn

Tuesday, February 9th, 2016 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet by Jamie Ford

Henry Lee is a second generation teenage Chinese American in the 1940s; he meets Keiko Okabe, a young Japanese American student. Amid the chaos of blackouts, curfews, and FBI raids, Henry and Keiko forge a bond of friendship - and innocent love - that transcends the long-standing prejudices of their Old World ancestors. With themes that are still relevant today, this should be a meaningful discussion.

Books will be available for borrowing prior to the discussion. Registration appreciated!

Save the date: Lunch & Learn Tuesday March 8th!

The Children Act by Ian McEwan

April 5th: The Art Forger by Barbara Shapiro

Monday, March 21st, 2016 at 6:30 p.m.

Organizing: A Plan of Attack for Any Space

Learn proven steps for tackling any of life's organizing challenges, the three main causes of clutter, the how to's for simplifying your space, and the process of working with a Professional Organizer. See before and after pictures! Sarah Soboleski, LCSW, is the owner of Classically Organized, a professional organizing business serving homeowners in central Connecticut. Connect with her at www.ClassicallyOrganized.com.

In addition, she is a licensed clinical social worker and specializes in working with persons struggling with mental illness and at-risk families. She is a member of The Connecticut Hoarding Working Group.

Life-Size

CANDY LAND

Kids old and young are invited to travel through the Lollipop Woods, Peppermint Forest, and Gumdrop Mountains in a life-size Candy Land game that will take place at the Portland Library on Saturday, February 6, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Come help us celebrate Take Your Child to the Library Day by navigating through all of the candy worlds in the Children's Department and using your knowledge of counting and colors to reach Candy Castle! No registration is required for this free program.

Passport to Reading!

January 4—February 29

Our Winter Reading Club theme for 2016 is "Passport to Reading!" Even if the cold weather keeps you stuck indoors, you can travel to faraway and exotic (and WARM!) places through the books that you read. Everyone who participates will be given a "passport" to fill in; the more times you visit the library, the more stickers you earn to fill in your passport book. Visit the library to see our display of books on faraway (and not-so-faraway) places and pick up a flyer for more information on the Passport to Reading program.

WINTER STORYTIMES

Our Winter Story Times continue through the end of February. A full list of programs and age groups is available on our website at www.portlandlibraryct.org. Registration is open now and can be done by calling the library at 860-342-6770 or visiting our website.

Monthly Book Discussions

All are welcome to attend the adult book discussion held one Thursday each month at 6:30 p.m. Titles are available to borrow; no reservations are necessary.

Thursday, February 4th at 6:30 p.m.

The Memory of Running* by Ron McLarty

Smithson "Smithy" Ide is an overweight, friendless, chain-smoking, forty-three-year-old drunk. By all accounts, especially his own, he's a loser. Then, within one week, Smithy's beloved parents are killed in a car crash, and his long-lost sister, Bethany, has turned up in a morgue. Unmoored by the loss of his entire family, Smithy rolls down the driveway of his parents' house on his old Raleigh bicycle into an epic journey that will take him clear across the country as he relives old memories and encounters humanity at its best and worst.

Thursday, March 3rd at 6:30 p.m.

The Secrets of Mary Bowser* by Lois Leveen

All her life, Mary has been a slave to the wealthy Van Lew family of Richmond, Virginia until Bet, the willful Van Lew daughter decides to send Mary to Philadelphia to be educated. But with the nation edging towards war, Mary defies Virginia law to return home to care for her ailing father and to fight for emancipation. Posing as a slave in the Confederate White House in order to spy on President Jefferson Davis, Mary deceives even those who are closest to her to aid the Union command.
