February Lunch and Learn

Tuesday, February 14th, 2017 at 12:00 noon

Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese

This novel follows twin brothers Marion and Shiva Stone, born of a secret union between an Indian nun and a brash British surgeon. They are orphaned at a young age and must learn to navigate the world together as they grow up in Ethiopia on the brink of a revolution. The twins' story is a family saga that crosses continents and cultures, a love story with tragic consequences and the way that two lives can forever intertwine.

Books will be available for borrowing prior to the discussion. Bring a lunch if you like. Dessert and beverages will be served.

ART ON DISPLAY

Brian Lee, a nature photographer, specializing in wildlife and macro-photography, searches for his subjects from the rain forests of South America to the fields and woods of his home town of Portland. Insects, reptiles/amphibians and flowers are some of his favorite subjects.

Come to an Artists Reception for Brian, Saturday, February 4, 2017 from 2:00-4:00 hosted by the Friends of the Portland Library!

Join the Adult Winter Reading Program

Check out Some Hot Reads for Cold Nights!

You can READ away the winter blues this year when you participate in the Youth Services News and Events

AT THE PORTLAND
LIBRARY

Saturday, February 4

from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Kids of all ages are invited to join us for a “hole” lot of fun as we turn the library into a mini golf course during the Sixth Annual “Take Your Child to the Library Day”

Our Teen Advisory Board has created a course full of entertaining and challenging obstacles, each based on a different picture book. Come grab a putter donated by Chris Cote’s Golf Shop and a scorecard and enjoy some “tee-rrific” family fun time.

Take Your Child to the Library Day (TYCLD) is an international initiative that encourages families everywhere to take their children to their local library. Launched in 2011 right here in Connecticut, TYCLD raises community awareness about the importance of the library in the life of a child, and promotes library services and programs for children and families.

No registration is required for this free program. Questions? Call 860-342-6770 or stop by the library.

Frozen Party

Wednesday, March 1

6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Monthly Book Discussions

All are welcome to attend the adult book discussion held one Thursday each month at 6:30 p.m. Titles are available to borrow; no reservations are necessary.

Thursday February 2nd at 6:30 p.m.

The Lonely Polygamist* by Brady Udall.

Golden Richards, husband to four wives and twenty-eight children is a deeply faithful man. But recent events have left him crippled with grief, and, along with the demands of work and family, have led him to become entangled in an affair that threatens to destroy his family's future. Beautifully written, keenly observed, and ultimately redemptive, this story of a dysfunctional but loving family needs to be read.

Thursday March 2nd at 6:30 p.m.

Revolutionary Road* by Richard Yates.

Frank and April Wheeler marry and expect to enjoy a typical suburban life, post-WWII. Tragically their marriage self-destructs. Humor somehow finds its way into this classic book about American life during the era of conformity.

Movies in the Afternoon

Wednesday, February 22, 2017 at 1:00 p.m.

Showing: Queen of Katwe

Starring: Madina Nalwanga, David Oyelowo, Lupita Nyong'o & Martin Kabanza. Director: Mira Nair. Walt Disney, PG, 124 minutes, 2016.

Living in the slum of Katwe in Kampala, Uganda, is a constant struggle for 10-year-old Phiona (Madina Nalwanga) and her family. Her world changes one day when she meets Robert Katende (David Oyelowo), a missionary who teaches children how to play chess. Phiona becomes fascinated with the game and soon becomes a top player under Katende's guidance. Her success in local competitions and tournaments opens the door to a bright future and a golden chance to escape from a life of poverty.

Movies in the Evening

Monday, February 13, 2017 at 6:30 p.m.

Showing: The Light between Oceans

Starring: Michael Fassbender, Alicia Vikander, Rachel Weisz, Bryan Brown & Jack Thompson. Director: Derek Cianfrance. Walt Disney, PG-13, 153 minutes, 2016.

The film tells the story of a lighthouse keeper and his wife who rescue and adopt an infant girl adrift at sea. Years later, the couple discovers the child's true parentage and are faced with the moral dilemma of their actions.
